25X1A

I think these cross cables with [REDACTED]

25X1A

[REDACTED] are a perfect example of the danger if the Director's authority to protect Intelligence Sources and Methods is impaired by legislation which takes appropriate determinations out of his hands . Many times when we fight legislation we are pushed for examples of how we are hurt. This is the first example and I think we should make a special effort in being able to dredge it up when the need arises. LLM
